MASSIE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL. WILL HAVE ADDITION SOON.

Lexington architects have been notified that an addition will be built to the Massie Memorial Hospital in Paris. Notices of the addition was contained in communications asking the Lexington architects to make bids on the new addition.

THE WEATHER.

The weather forecast for the week beginning Sunday, April 1, as sent out from the U. S. Weather Bureau at Washington, is as follows:
For Ohio Valley and Tennessee—Unsettled and local rains at beginning of week. Generally fair after Monday—first half cool, latter half warmer.

EASTER SALE.

For the week of April 2 we offer you a reduction sale of our opening display hats. Hats that sparkle with originality and newness. Great reduced prices all during this week.

HARRY SIMON.

GOOD SALE OF JERSEYS.

Live stock offered at public sale in Georgetown, Saturday, brought unusually good prices. The most notable sale was of a herd of fifty-one cows belonging to Sanford C. Carpenter, of Millersburg, which brought $42.50 to $150 per head, averaging $80. The sales were made by Jesse Shuff, of Lexington, and Col. Hawkins, of Maysville.

LAST WEEK OF LENT.

The last week of the Lenten season was ushered in Sunday—Palm Sunday—and as Holy Week has come to be regarded by society, irrespective of creed or denomination as a period throughout which it is good form, at least, to refrain from any gaiety or entertainment, the social calendar, except for club meetings, will be practically a blank.

MISS HOLLADAY'S NEW SHOP.

Miss Holladay's New Shop, which has been in the hands of the decorators for several weeks, was thrown open Friday for the inspection of visitors. The New Shop is a beauty, its decorative effects being harmonious and an air of elegance prevailing the place. It is also well arranged for handling the candies that have made Paris famous, and is in every way a model of neatness and convenience.

FLAGS BEING DISPLAYED.

There has been a notable and most commendable increase in the number of flags displayed here recently. Many business houses have thrown "Old Glory" to the breeze, and almost every person on the street has a small flag pinned on. Let the good work go on—it shows the right spirit.
Flags on the court house, the Masonic Temple, the City Hall, and other public buildings would adorn the bare flag poles on those buildings!

PARIS AUXILIARY TO OBSERVE WEEK OF PRAYER

This week will be observed by the members of the C. W. B. M. Auxiliary and the Mission Circle of the Christian church as a "Week of Prayer." The first meeting was held at the church yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. No meeting will be held today, as the day will be devoted to "visiting day," with the especial object of enlisting new members. Tomorrow the members will attend the regular mid-week prayer-meeting at 7:30 p. m., conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Ellis.

BARN BLOWN DOWN.

During the high wind which prevailed Sunday, a big barn on the farm of Mr. James Connell, on the Riddles Mills pike, was blown down. The force of the wind carried the timbers around like matches, and spread them all over the lot. A number of cows had just been driven from the barn. Twelve hogs were caught in the wreck. A tenant house in the path of the storm was moved from its foundation, and so wedged with flying timbers from the barn that the doors could not be opened.

"GO-TO-SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY" FOR MAY 6.

Sunday, May 6, will be observed by the churches and Sunday Schools of Kentucky as a State-wide "Go-to-Sunday-School-Day" and an effort will be made to have at least one million persons in attendance during the day at the Sunday Schools of the State. The object of the day, which was originated by the State Sunday School Association, is to give larger publicity to the work of the Sunday Schools of the State, and to so organize the religious forces that they will increase the enrollment and regular attendance to more than a million persons a week. Every home in the State will be canvassed by the workers, and the Governor will be asked to lend his influence to the movement by issuing a special proclamation.
